LSU is so cool. I get to be a part of piloting an organization called LSU Global by being an ambassador. The program pairs international students with LSU students from the U.S. to help teach English, promote socialization, provide help in school, and just straight up form awesome relationships. I'm super excited that this Friday I'm meeting my first international friend, Jiayun. He's from China and is a chemical engineering major. I CANT WAIT TO MEET HIM! 😊
